

TOWN OF BYRON, NY COUNTY OF GENESEE

LOCAL LAW NO. 2 OF THE YEAR 2026

A LOCAL LAW TO REGULATE AND SET STANDARDS FOR SHORT TERM RENTALS IN THE TOWN OF BYRON

WHEREAS, the Town of Byron finds that the use of private property for short term rentals can negatively impact the aesthetic character, property values, peace and enjoyment and public safety of the community; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed necessary and appropriate to establish reasonable regulations concerning short term rentals to promote the general welfare, health, safety, and prosperity of the inhabitants of the Town of Byron;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by the Town Board of the Town of Byron as follows:

Definitions:

As used in this chapter, the following term shall have the meaning indicated:

SHORT-TERM RENTAL — Any portion of real property rented or used for compensation in exchange for lodging for a period of not more than 31 consecutive days. This may include, but is not limited to, campgrounds, tent sites or tent platforms and other temporary structures on a parcel. For the purpose of this chapter, the term "short-term rental" shall not include a bed-and-breakfast, boarding/lodging house, hotel, motel, or ongoing month-to-month tenancies.

Presumption of dwelling unit as short-term rental property.

A. The presence of the following shall create a presumption that all or a part of the property is being used as a short-term rental:

(1) All or a part of the property is offered for lease on a short-term rental website, including, but not limited to, examples such as Airbnb, Home Away and VRBO, for a rental period of less than 31 days; and/or

(2) All or a part of the property is offered for lease for a period of 31 days or less through any form of advertising.

B. The foregoing presumptions may be rebutted by evidence presented to the Code Enforcement Officer that the premises is not operated as a short-term rental.

Required permit.

A. Owners shall not use their property as a short-term rental without obtaining a revocable short-term rental permit.

B. A short-term rental permit shall be valid for one year and must be renewed 90 days prior to expiration of current permit if the premises is to continue to operate as a short-term rental.

C. The short-term rental permit is not transferable to a new title owner or designee. The new title owner of the premises or designee subject to a short-term rental permit must file a new permit application.

D. Notwithstanding the foregoing, those properties with short-term rental commitments existing on the date this section takes effect shall be permitted to honor such existing commitments and continue to make commitments for short-term rentals, but a title owner must apply for a permit within 30 days of the local law's effective date for all future short-term rental commitments.

For prior commitments prior to the effective date of this section, after application, an owner shall coordinate an inspection of the premises with the Code Enforcement Officer for compliance with fire and safety codes and ordinances contained in the New York State Uniform Code within seven days. In the event violations of the New York State Uniform Code related to fire and safety exist, prior commitments will not be permitted. However, in the event these violations have been remedied to the satisfaction of the Code Enforcement Officer within 30 days of the date of the inspection, such prior commitments may be honored and permitted for an additional 30 days from the date the Code Enforcement Officer states in writing the property is in compliance. In the event such application is denied, all commitments shall be cancelled at no cost to the Town of Byron.

Short-term rental permit application requirements.

A. Applications for a short-term rental permit may be obtained from the Town of Byron Code Enforcement Officer. Short-term rental permit shall be submitted to the Code Enforcement Officer, accompanied by payment of a non-refundable permit fee of $150.00 (one hundred fifty dollars). The permit fee may be reviewed and changed from time to time by the town board through resolution.

The application shall include the following:

(1) The signatures of all title owners or their designated agents. All persons applying as designated agents must submit a written designation, validly notarized, and acceptable as lawful in New York State.

(2) A written statement authorizing the Code Enforcement Officer to inspect the property to ensure compliance with all requirements and standards contained within this chapter.

(3) An acknowledgement of present and ongoing compliance with the short-term rental standards as defined in this chapter, including, but not limited to, the demonstration of adequate off-road parking spaces for the proposed short-term rental.

(4) A list of each property owner and the name of any manager or management agency managing the property, including names, addresses, telephone numbers and email addresses of each.

(5) The name, address, telephone number and email address of a contact person, who shall be responsible and authorized to act on the owners' behalf to promptly remedy any violation of the standards outlined in this section. The contact person may be an owner or an agent designated by the owner(s) to serve as a contact person, and shall respond to any correspondence or concern from the Town Code Enforcement Officer within 24 hours.

(6) An accurate suitable floor plan for each level of the dwelling that can be occupied measuring at least 8.5 inch by 11 inch, drawn to scale and certified by the applicant.

The floor plan does not need to be prepared by a professional, but must include the following:

- (a) The location of buildings and required parking.
- (b) Basement: location of house utilities and all rooms including bedrooms, windows, exits and any heating/cooling units.
- (c) First floor: all rooms including bedrooms, windows, exits and any heating/cooling units.
- (d) Second floor: all rooms including bedrooms, windows, exits and any heating/cooling units.
- (e) Attic (if present): all rooms including bedrooms, windows, exits and any heating/cooling units.

(7) A statement that none of the owners of the subject property have had a short-term rental permit revoked within the previous year for any rental properties owned individually or together with others.

(8) Any other document, item or information deemed relevant to the application in the determination of the code enforcement officer.

B. All completed applications are subject to a floor plan review and approval by the Code Enforcement Officer.

C. Owners wishing to apply for a variance relating to sleeping capacity, parking capacity, or other standards stated below must petition to the Zoning Board of Appeals. Variance applications will be reviewed by the Zoning Board of Appeals in accordance with the Town's Zoning Code and said changes shall become effective upon approval of the town board through resolution.

The permit application requirements may be modified from time to time by the planning board and shall be implemented after approval of the town board through resolution

Short term rental standards.

A. Property requirements.

(1) Property must comply and meet all current provisions of the New York State Uniform Code.

(2) There shall be one working smoke detector in each sleeping room and one additional smoke detector on each floor. Carbon monoxide detectors shall be installed as required by the New York State Uniform Fire Prevention and Building Code.

(3) Evacuation procedures must be posted in each sleeping room to be followed in the event of a fire or smoke condition or upon activation of a fire or smoke-detecting or other alarm device.

(4) There shall be an ABC fire extinguisher on each floor and in the kitchen. Fire extinguishers shall be inspected prior to a renter occupying the property and no less than monthly by the permit holder(s) to ensure each contains a full charge. A record of the date inspected and initialed by the permit holder shall be maintained and made available to the Code Enforcement Officer upon request.

(5) The house number shall be located both at the road and on the dwelling unit so that the house number is clearly visible from both the road and the driveway.

(6) Exterior doors shall be operational and all passageways to exterior doors shall be clear and unobstructed.

(7) Electrical systems shall be in good operating condition, labeled, unobstructed and shall be visible for the Code Enforcement Officer during the permitting process. Any defects found shall be corrected prior to permit issuance.

(8) All fireplaces shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations.

(9) The property must have a minimum of one off-road parking space for every bedroom shown on the floor plan included with the application.

(10) Maximum occupancy for each short-term rental unit shall not exceed two people per bedroom shown on the floor plan included with the application and two people per minimum full-size convertible sleeping accommodation furniture (i.e. futon, hide-a-bed) also identified on the floor plan. The maximum occupancy of a short-term rental unit shall not exceed 12 people, including permanent residents and renters.

(11) In the event that the property has a septic system, the maximum occupancy shall be defined by the capabilities of the septic system, but in no event shall overnight occupancy for any short-term rental unit exceed 12 people total

(12) A septic system at the property must meet all state requirements.

(13) The septic system must have been pumped within the past four years and proof of pumping and satisfactory inspection by a qualified septic disposal firm shall be available to the Code Enforcement Officer. If the short-term rental is in the Town of Byron sewer district, once a short-term rental permit is issued, the septic system must be pumped out at least every other year from the year the initial permit is granted. These pump outs shall not be at the town's expense, but lie solely with the owner. In the event, the frequency of a pump out in an alternate year aligns with the sewer districts' four year district-wide pump out, then that pump out by the sewer district will be done at no cost to owner.

(14) The water supply to the property must meet all state requirements.

(15) One sign identifying the short-term rental shall be allowed measuring no more than six square feet on a side. The sign may be double-sided but not internally lighted. The location, design and dimensions of the sign shall be reviewed and approved by the Code Enforcement Officer prior to issuance of the permit. If signage is desired after a permit has been issued, the short-term rental permit holder must submit a request for review and approval to the Code Enforcement Officer prior to installation. If the property has vehicular access on more than one road, there may be one sign fronting on each road. Any sign associated with a short term rental shall comply with the town code and/or zoning code for signs at all times.

(16) A sewer rate per unit charge shall be paid in full after determination of the code enforcement officer. That determination may require a visual inspection of the premises by the code enforcement officer.

(17) A bed tax shall be paid after determination by the code enforcement officer. That determination may require a visual inspection by the code enforcement officer. This shall be paid to the county directly and proof of payment provided to the code enforcement officer with the application or upon request.

B. Insurance standards.

All applicants and permit holders must provide "evidence of property insurance" and a "certificate of liability insurance" indicating the premises is rated as a short-term rental and maintain such insurance throughout the term of the short-term rental permit.

C. Provisions shall be made for weekly garbage removal during rental periods. Garbage containers shall be secured with tight-fitting covers at all times to prevent leakage, spilling or odors, and placed where they are not clearly visible from the road except at approximate pick-up time.

D. Rental contract: All applicants and permit holders must have a rental contract, which includes the following:

- (1) Maximum property occupancy;
- (2) Maximum on-site parking provided; and
- (3) Good neighbor statement stating:

(a) The short-term rental is in a residential area in the Town of Byron and that renters should be considerate of the residents in neighboring homes.

(b) Guests are requested to observe quiet hours from 11:00 p.m. through 7:00 a.m.

(c) All renters will be subject to New York Penal Law § 240.20 or any successor statute regarding disorderly conduct.

(d) Littering is illegal; and

(e) Recreational campfires must be attended.

Procedure upon filing application:

A. Short-term rental permit applications shall be filed with the Town of Byron Code Enforcement Officer with all supporting documentation and the non-refundable permit fee. Only completed applications will be accepted by the Town's Code Enforcement Officer.

Approval of the permit application lies solely in the discretion of the Code Enforcement Officer. The Code Enforcement Officer may decline to accept an application for consideration for any of the following reasons, including, but not limited to:

(1) The application, documentation required by this section was not included or inaccurate or fraudulent information was included therein or the full permit fee was not paid.

(2) A previously issued short-term rental permit was revoked within the past year and defects and/or violations have not been corrected and inspected by the Code Enforcement Officer.

B. Upon receipt of a completed short-term rental permit application, adjacent property owners of the short-term rental will be notified of the application by the Town of Byron via post card or e-mail.

C. Upon the Code Enforcement Officer's acceptance of the completed permit application, all documents and information required by this section and the permit fee, the Code Enforcement Officer shall have 30 days to conduct a property inspection to certify and approve that all short-term rental requirements have been met.

D. Upon approval of the short-term rental application by the Code Enforcement Officer, a short-term rental permit will be issued. Short-term rental permits issued pursuant to this Section shall state the following:

(1) The names, addresses and phone numbers of each person or entity that has an ownership interest in the short-term rental property.

(2) The name, address and phone number of a primary contact person who shall be available during the entire time the short-term rental property is being rented.

(3) The maximum occupancy and vehicle limits for the short-term rental property.

(4) Identification of the number of and location of parking spaces available.

(5) A determination shall be made as to the sewer rate and number of units to be applied to the premises.

(6) Any conditions imposed by the Zoning Board of Appeals and/or Code Enforcement Officer.

Conformity and display of permit.

A. Short-term rental permits are subject to continued compliance with the requirements of these regulations.

(1) If the Code Enforcement Officer has probable cause to believe that the homeowner is not in compliance with the provisions of this law, the Code Enforcement Officer may request permission from an owner of the short-term rental permit to enter the premises and to conduct an inspection of the short-term rental property for purposes of ensuring compliance with this section. If the property owner refuses to permit the Code Enforcement Officer to inspect the property, the permit will be revoked. If an inspection authorized herein is conducted, the Code Enforcement Officer shall use the results of such inspection in determining whether to revoke the permit.

(2) The short-term rental permit, maximum occupancy limit, maximum parking, contact form and standards shall be prominently displayed inside and near the front entrance of the short-term rental; and

(3) The short-term rental permit holder shall ensure that current and accurate information is provided to the Code Enforcement Officer and that they notify the Code Enforcement Officer immediately of any change in the information displayed on the permit. If, based on such changes, the Code Enforcement Officer issues an amended short-term rental permit; the owners must immediately post the amended permit inside and near the front entrance of the short-term rental.

(4) The short-term rental permit holder must conspicuously display the short-term rental permit number in all advertisements for the applicable short-term rental.

Application for renewal of permit.

Renewal permits will be granted for an additional one-year term if the following conditions are met:

- A. Application for renewal of the short-term rental permit shall be made 90 days prior to expiration of current permit and requires payment of renewal fee.
- B. At the time of application for renewal, the owner or designated agent must present the previous permit for short-term rental.
- C. The property must have undergone an inspection performed by the Code Enforcement Officer.
- D. Any violations must be remedied prior to renewal of a permit for short-term rental, however, the Compliance and Penalties provision below are applicable.

The renewal permit fee shall be $150 per year and is subject to change from time to time by the planning board with approval of the town board through resolution.

Compliance and penalties.

- A. Violations of this section or of any short-term rental permit issued pursuant to this section shall be subject to enforcement and penalties prescribed in this chapter.
- B. If the Code Enforcement Officer either witnesses or receives a written complaint of an alleged violation of this section or of any short-term rental permit issued pursuant to this section, the Code Enforcement Officer shall properly record such complaint and immediately investigate the report thereon. If the Code Enforcement Officer determines there is a violation of this code, the owners shall be notified in writing by first class mail and certified return receipt mail at the last known address of said violations and the Code Enforcement Officer may take any or all of the following actions:

- (1) Attach conditions to the existing short-term rental permit.
- (2) Suspend the short-term rental permit. The notice of suspension shall be provided to the property owner and a copy filed with the town clerk.
- (3) Require corrective action that remedies the violation(s). The corrective action must be completed and approved within 35 days of the date of the notice from the Code Enforcement Officer is dated or the owner risks suspension or revocation of the short-term rental permit.
- (4) Issue a court appearance ticket for violation of the town code or New York State law.
- (5) Should a permit be revoked, all owners of the short-term rental are prohibited from obtaining a short-term rental permit on the property for one year after the date of revocation. The Code Enforcement Officer will record and send notices of revocation to property owners and inform the Town Planning Board.
- (6) The initial fee includes one (1) follow up inspection. Any additional inspection(s) required will be an extra cost of $100.00 per inspection until the property is deemed in compliance.

Grounds for suspension or revocation of permit.

A. The Code Enforcement Officer may immediately suspend a short-term rental permit based on any ground, including, but not limited to the following:

- (1) Applicant has falsified or failed to provide accurate information in the application for a permit or the application for permit renewal.
- (2) Applicant failed to meet or comply with any of the requirements of this chapter.
- (3) Owner is in violation of any provision of the Code of the Town of Byron.
- (4) Owner has violated any provision of the Penal Law of the State of New York, which violation occurred at, or related to the occupancy of the short-term rental.
- (5) Any conduct on the premises, which disturbs the health, safety, peace or comfort of the neighborhood or which otherwise creates a public nuisance.
- (6) Removal or disrepair of any safety devices such as, but not limited to, smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, fire extinguishers and egresses.

No portion of the premises can be rented or used for compensation during the suspension or revocation period. Continuing to rent or use any portion of the property for compensation during the suspension or revocation period shall constitute a separate, distinct violation of the permit.

Appeals and hearings.

The property owner is entitled to appeal the Code Enforcement Officer's determination to the Zoning Board of Appeals when a property owner's application for a short-term rental permit or a short-term rental permit renewal is denied or a short-term rental permit is suspended or revoked.

A notice of appeal shall be filed with the Town Clerk and the Zoning Board of Appeals within 30 days of the Code Enforcement Officer's filing of the denial or suspension or revocation with the town clerk. A hearing shall be held by the Zoning Board of Appeals not more than 45 days after the filing of the notice of appeal.

Severability

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this law is for any reason held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct, and independent provision, and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions hereof.

Conflicting laws

All laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith are shall be considered invalid or unenforceable.

Effective date

This law shall take effect upon its filing with the New York State Secretary of State.
